Handwritten text in Arabic script, likely a manuscript or a collection of poems. The text is arranged in several columns and appears to be a continuation of a work. The script is dense and characteristic of classical Arabic calligraphy. There are some red markings at the top right, possibly indicating a page number or a section header. The text is written on aged, slightly yellowed paper.

Handwritten text in Arabic script, likely a manuscript or ledger page. The text is arranged in approximately 12 horizontal lines. The script is dense and cursive, characteristic of classical Arabic or Ottoman Turkish handwriting. The lines are roughly parallel and fill most of the page area.

Handwritten text in Arabic script, likely a religious or historical document. The text is arranged in several columns and includes various phrases and possibly a list of items or names. The script is dense and fills most of the page.

Handwritten text in Arabic script, continuing from the previous page. It features similar dense handwriting and is organized into columns. The text appears to be a continuation of the same document or a related one.
